EULOGY

Ann Louise Greaux, affectionately called "Yaya" was born on April 21, 1917, to Isidore and Angelina Ledee on the island of St. Barths, French West Indies.

She migrated to St. Thomas at an early age where she attended school.

On January 12, 1935 she married Gene Hypolite Greaux, together they had 18 children (5 deceased).

During the time of raising her children and maintaining her home, she was an active member of the St. Ann's Society. She also attended Mother of Perpetual Help Services, and had a great devotion to St. Jude.

After a long battle she made peace with her God, and died peacefully on December 10, 1992 at the St. Thomas Hospital.
