AUREA LYDIA OLIVE

Better known as SARAH

Aurea Lydia Olive better known by everyone as Sarah Olive was born in San German, Puerto Rico and was the daughter of Teresa and Pedro Montalvo. She came to St. Thomas in the early 1960's. Her first job in St. Thomas was at Lucy's Market on the waterfront where she was a cashier. There she met her husband and soul mate, Lionel. Lionel and Sarah were married in 1960 and had been married for 45 years when Lionel died in December 2004. From their union, Sarah and Lionel had two children, Lionel and Sarita. In 1967 when her sister, Pura died, Sarah added a special daughter to her family, Pura's daughter, Vilma.

Sarah and Lionel truly enjoyed life and especially their family. She enjoyed spending time with her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. They spent a lot of time at the beach (Water Island, St. John and Magens Bay) and on their boat, the SaraLee. Sarah loved the culture of the islands, the music, and she especially loved meeting people. It was her love for people that brought her to her job in jewelry sales, where she worked for over 30 years.

When the family learned of Lionel's illness, Sarah did not hesitate for a moment, she immediately packed up and moved to Lionel's family in Salisbury, Maryland for almost two years, leaving their family and friends in St. Thomas so that Lionel could get the treatment he needed. Although Sarah was sick at the time of Lionel's illness, she was his strength and the rock of the family. She encouraged him every day to fight a hard fight, which she did also, until God called her home to be with Lionel. She will remain a good example for her family and friends ... never give up.

Your smile, loving ways and generous heart made our lives so much richer, and we thank God that you were part of our lives. One day, with God's grace, we will meet again.

Our prayers are now for the repose of her soul. Sarah, you are gone, but will never be forgotten. May you rest in God's peace.
