

Celebrating the Life of

Fernando Aubain

*Sunrise: September 4, 1940
Sunset: November 26, 2009*

Viewing

*Friday, December 4, 2009
8:30 a.m. – 9:30 a.m.
Turnbull's Funeral Home*

Service

*Friday, December 4, 2009
10:00 a.m.
St. Anne's Chapel*

*Officiating Minister: Father Charles Crespo
Deacon: Clement Danet
Organist: Jean Greaux*

Interment: Western Cemetery #1

Eulogy

Our father, Fernando Aubain, better known to all as "Nando", was born on September 4, 1940 to Joseph and Clemencia Aubain. He was the proud father of three children, Suzette, Fernando Jr. and Michael, and the very proud grandfather of six grandchildren, "Jojo", Jakesha, Jaron, Niko, Ali and Sadie, that put a smile on his face every time he spoke of them.

"Nando" was last employed for the Department of Public Works until he retired at an early age because of medical problems. He lived a very simple life, never asking for much, but a few dollars in his pocket so he can go on the Bay to meet his friends and talk about sports, especially the Yankees. You would always find him at home swinging in his hammock and watching a good Western on TV. He was a diehard Yankees fan who couldn't wait for baseball season every year to see if the Yankees would make it to the World Series. Well, God gave him that final chance this year as he watched and celebrated the Yankees winning the World Series one more time.

"Nando" had a routine almost everyday. He would get up in the morning, as he would say it, "I get up 5 o'clock every marning", take his medicine, enjoy a hot cup of coffee and wait to greet all of his neighbors as they left for work. After that, he would take a walk to dump his garbage and continue his stroll to the bayside to chit chat a while, and then continue on his walk back home passing in front of La Belle Creole and calling out to Joyce and Ralphie, "what's up". Once home, he would just relax in his hammock and wait, as he would say, "for the Government to bring my food", then watch TV and take his afternoon nap. The life of a very simple, simple man.

As he would say to everyone, no matter what,

"I LOVE EVERYBODY"

Rest in Peace to our Father, Grandpa, Brother, Uncle and Friend, till we meet again.

Survivors

Children

Suzette Descartes, Fernando Aubain, Jr. & Michael Anthony Aubain

Sisters

Bernadette Pena, Eleanor Mota, Cynthia George, Carol, Dahlia & Joyce Aubain

Brothers

Ralph & Gene Aubain

Son-in-Law

Urban Descartes

Daughter-in-Law

Rita Aubain

Grandchildren

Jamen "Jojo", Jakesha, Jaron, Niko, Ali & Sadie

Aunts

Louise Yarrington, Geraldine Bernier

Sister-in-Law

Anita Aubain

Brothers-in-Law

Camello Mota & Wilbur George

MANY NIECES, NEPHEWS, GREAT NIECES & GREAT NEPHEWS

Pallbearers

Fernando & Michael Aubain, Jamen Descartes, Niko Aubain, Urban Descartes, Maxwell Carty

Honorary Pallbearers

Ralph & Gene Aubain, Emeleo "Mego" Jeppesen, Donald & Vernon Blyden, Nugget Rhymer