Eulogy

Jean Norbert Ledee was born March 28, 1922, on the French West Indian island of St. Barthelemy, to proud parents, Luis Joseph and Lucy Ledee. He left his homeland at the age of fourteen and dutifully journeyed to St. Thomas in search of employment to provide support for his family.

In St. Thomas, Norbert worked initially as a gardener and later was employed as a messenger at a hotel. Upon marriage to his loving and devoted wife, Marie Elvina in 1961, Norbert took a job at Lucy's Supermarket from which he retired in 1989.

A proud and dignified man, he spent the final ten years of his life in harmony with his wife and enjoying his two daughters, Marie Claudette Santana and Ann Lydia Sypniewski. His most enduring smiles were reserved for his grandchildren: Samuel Santana, Manuel Santana, Shane Hall Sypniewski and Victoria Ann Sypniewski. Although his spirit, resolve and love remained strong, his body could not sustain the same and Norbert passed quietly, with dignity on Wednesday, January 27, 1999.
