Eulogy

John Ledée was born in Crab Hill, Sandy Point, St. Kitts. The second son of Pierre and Jenny Ledée. He moved to St. Thomas to make a life for himself. He was married to Gwendolyn Ledée for 28 years until her passing, and is survived by 4 children, 17 grandchildren and many relatives.

He was a quiet man with a strong sense of family and faith. He was the solid foundation upon which his family was built. He worked hard and tried to instill into his children a sense of responsibility and self respect. A slow man to anger unless his family was threatened. A good provider for his children, they wanted for nothing if it was within his means.

He was loved and although gone from the reality of flesh and blood, he is forever with us in our hearts and memories. May he be happy and at peace in the house of the Lord and one day may we all be blessed by reunification.
