John Napoleon Aubain

John Napoleon Aubain was born February 18, 1935 in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands to Clemencia Magras Aubain and Isidore Aubain. He was the second son of eighteen children. His early education was at St. Peter and Paul School.

As a young boy growing up in Frenchtown, he loved the sea. This led to his becoming a fisherman in his adult life.

On February 28, 1975 John married Bernice Creque. From that union came six children and one stepson.

John supplement his income by gardening and painting to provide for his growing family. Later John and Bernice divorced, but his love for his children continued until his passing.

John left this world on November 9, 1995.
