Eulogy

Leonard was born in Grand-Fond, St. Barthelemy, to Jean-Baptiste and Clemence Berry on May 23, 1904.

As a young man, Leonard traveled to Philadelphia and later to New York where he acquired his unique skills in the art of cooking.

He later returned to St. Barthelemy and married Adrienne Brin. The marriage was blessed with six children: Jeanne, Raymond, Lila, Michael, Cecelia and Robert.

Berry, as he was well-known, was a loyal and dedicated family man.

Having moved to St. Thomas, he continued working in many of the island's major hotels and restaurants. An artist in his own right, Leonard was a professional man in every sense of the word. He loved to make people happy by touching their hearts with his unique kindness and love.

He was a man among men.

"Yunar", "Daddy", "Ti Nous", you are now and always will be in the center of our hearts.

God bless you.

Your Beloved Family
