Eulogy

Louis Almondo Aubain was born on March 17, 1901 on St. Thomas, VI to Pierre and Marie Danet Aubain. Popular known as Mondo he soon became an excellent cricket player and as a youngster traveled throughout the Caribbean playing cricket. He later enlisted in the US Navy and extended his travels to Europe and Australia playing his favorite sport of cricket while in the Navy. Mondo went on to serve his country for 26 years and 2 months serving during World War II. After his retirement Mondo and his wife settled with their youngest son Victor, in San Diego, California. He lived there spending the remaining years of his life.

Mondo married Marie Philomene Ledee in St. Anne's Chapel, St. Thomas, VI and this union brought them seven children. He was a great father and husband to his family and did his very best for all of them.
