MARIE JOSEPHINE DANET
November 19, 1911 - October 12, 1988

Marie Josephine Danet was born on St. Barthelemy on November 19, 1911 to George Greaux and Elizabeth Olive.

She came to St. Thomas as a very young girl. She grew up in Frenchtown, attended the Sts. Peter & Paul School and was a member of St. Ann's Society.

She met and married Augustine Aubain, and they became parents of a son. Marie suffered a great loss when her only son passed away at the age of two and then again, about a year and a half later, when her husband Augustine passed away.

Eight years after the death of her first husband Marie married Flavel Danet. She dedicated herself to being a good wife to him for more than twenty-five years, until his death in October, 1975.

After her husband Flavel passed away Marie continued to live a quiet life at her home in Frenchtown until she moved to the Queen Louise Home for the Elderly four years ago.

Marie died peacefully at the age of 76 on October 12, 1988.

May she rest in peace.

LIFE IS ETERNAL

"Life is eternal," the good Lord said,
So do not think of your loved one as dead—
For death is only a stepping stone
To a beautiful life we have never known,
A place where God promised man he would be Eternally happy and safe and free
A wonderful land where we live anew
When our journey on earth is over and through—
So trust in God and doubt Him never,
For all who love Him live forever,
And while we cannot understand
Just let the Saviour take your hand,
For when death's angel comes to call,
God is so great and we're so small . . .
And there is nothing you need fear
For faith in God makes all things clear.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed.

Through many dangers,
toild and snares,
I am already come;
'Tis grace hath brought me
safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

IN THE SWEET
BY- AND- BY
There's a land that is fairer than day,
And by faith we can see it
afar,
For the Father waits over the way,
To prepare us a dwelling-place
there.

In the sweet . . . by-and- by . . .
We shall meet on that beautiful
shore . . .
In the sweet . . . by-and- by . . .
We shall meet on that beautiful
shore.

We shall sing on that beautiful
shore
The melodious songs of the blest;
And our spirits shall sorrow
no more -
Not a sigh for the blessing of rest.

To our bountiful Father above
We will offer the tribute of praise,
For the glorious gift of His love,
And the blessings that hallow
our days.
