Eulogy

Theresa "Terry" Danet was born on St. Thomas on February 23, 1930 to the late Frederick and Emily Olive. In 1947, she married the late Pierre Julien Danet, a union that produced one daughter, Gail.

In 1948, Terry moved to New York where she took up employment at Woolworth's Department Store for several years. Returning home in 1954, she operated the infamous "Pierre's Diner" with her husband for about five years.

When Pierre decided to begin a new career in the banking industry, Terry committed her life to raising Gail and to caring for her family. In later years, Terry took great pride in being an usher at Sts. Peter and Paul Cathedral and as a member of The Committee for the Betterment of Carenage. She served in both capacities until her failing health would not let her.

Terry had the good fortune to see her only daughter marry SFC Trevor "TJ" Joseph, a union that bestowed on Terry her only grandchild in the person of Takia Theresa Rhoda Joseph.

Terry's health began to deteriorate in late 2000. Gail, Trevor, Takia and her caretaker, Jean Quetel, along with family and friends provided for her during her remaining days in this life. Terry was hospitalized at Schneider Regional Medical Center about two weeks ago and died peacefully on the morning of Tuesday, July 5th.

Our prayer is that her soul and the souls of the faithfully departed rest in peace.
