

Roy B. Greaux

A service will be held Friday for Roy B. Greaux, who died March 26 at home.

A funeral mass will be held at 10:30 a.m. at St. Maximilian Kolbe R.C. Church, Pocono Pines, Pa. He will be cremated.

He was the son of the late Henry and Marie Bryan Greaux, formerly of St. Thomas.

He is survived by his wife, Diane Forte Greaux; son, Roy; daughter, Gina Salvaggio; brother, George; sister, Ellie Greaux Karon; and two granddaughters.

He was born in Brooklyn, N.Y., and worked for Con Edison for 35 years, retiring in 2006 to Blakeslee, Pa. He helped repair the gas mains leading to the former World Trade Center buildings after the terrorist attacks of Sept. 11, 2001.
