Val lived by God and died by God. She was always there for her family, for her church and even there for a stranger in need. She thought of others long before she even thought of herself. She was a hard worker at Le Petit Pararieux and Greaux Hardware Store where she was a retail clerk. Her passion was her church (Sts. Peter and Paul) where she did the linens, gave communion, fixed the flowers for over 50 years and cleaned the church when needed. She was a paramount influence in raising Carol and Joe, who considered her their second "Mom." She had many family, friends and homeless people who loved her dearly. She will be missed. Val, spread your heavenly wings and protect us all.
